PRESENTER

Christopher M. Bellitto, Ph.D., Professor of History, Kean University and author of several Paulist Press books including most recently, Ageless Wisdom: Lifetime Lessons from the Bible. He will teach LIM's History of Christian Spirituality course this summer.

TOPIC

What has the church been teaching, especially recently, on how we can embrace our elders in our parish communities—and what are the implications of a rapidly-aging population for spirituality and parish ministry? Specifically, what lessons might we learn about wisdom and growing?
